

Hello,

I would like to offer my services to you and your students. I am a music arranger living in New York City, and am available for a variety of different jobs. I adhere to the highest standards in all of my work, and pride myself on a quick turnaround. I can perform the following duties:

- Transpositions
- Transcriptions (sheet music from a recording)
- Lead Sheets
- Piano Reductions
- Custom Arrangements (whatever else you can think of)

Below is a quick example of a transposition I have done. Please feel free to contact me with any questions you might have, and have a nice day!

Sincerely,

Dana Haynes

Someone To Watch Over Me

George & Ira Gershwin

Scherzando

The image shows a musical score for the song "Someone To Watch Over Me" by George and Ira Gershwin. The score is in a transposed key, indicated by the key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). It features a piano introduction with a treble clef staff and a grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The tempo is marked "Scherzando". The piano part begins with a dynamic marking of mf and includes a un poco rit. instruction at the end of the first phrase.
